  - Coverage for responding to extortion threats which include:
    - The cost of a negotiator or investigator retained by you in connection with a cyber extortion threat
    - Any amount paid by you in response to a credible cyber extortion threat to the party that made the cyber extortion threat for the purposes of eliminating the threat.
  - Cyber Extortion is subject to the following sub-limits:
    - $10,000 - $50,000 and $100,000 Annual Aggregate Limit
    - $25,000 - $250,000 Annual Aggregate Limit
- Data Compromise Liability
  - Data Compromise Liability Coverage is designed as a complement to the Response Expense (first party) Data Compromise Coverage. Before there can be a loss under Liability, there must first be a covered loss under the Response Expenses (first party) Data Compromise Coverage.
  - If one or more such "affected individuals", or a government entity on behalf of such individuals, sue the insured, then coverage is provided for defense and settlement costs, subject to the coverage limit. This limit is part of the Cyber Suite annual aggregate limit.

- Data Compromise Liability coverage provides for defense costs (within the coverage limit) and associated settlement and judgment costs arising from an action brought by “affected individuals”, or a government entity on behalf of such individuals, who allege certain injuries as a result of a covered data compromise.
- Network Security Liability
  - Network Security Liability Coverage is triggered by the insured’s receipt of notice of a network security liability suit.
  - The network security liability suit can be a civil action, an alternate dispute resolution proceeding or a written demand for money.
  - The network security liability suit must be initiated by a third party who alleges that a systems security failure on the part of the insured allowed one or more of the following to happen:
    - The breach of third party business information
    - The unintended propagation or forwarding of malware
    - The unintended abetting of a denial of service attack
    - Network Security Liability coverage provides for defense costs (within the coverage limit) and associated settlement and judgment costs arising from an action brought by third parties who allege certain injuries as a result of a failure in the insured’s systems security.
    - There need not be a covered loss under the first party Computer Attack coverage in order for there to be a loss under the third party Network Security Liability coverage. Only the limit in force during the policy period when notice of the suit was first received by the insured will apply.
